Heart to Heart: Nehemiah – A Heart that Can Break

Teachers: Judi Eady & Amber Dalton
Location: Fellowship Hall
Dates: 3/27 - 5/8

Nehemiah's heart broke so deeply for the suffering Jews that he left the comfort of his Persian palace to restore their desolate community. This in-depth, relational Bible study will inspire you to listen to what God has put in your heart to do. Let God break your heart for the hurting, because He often uses a breaking heart to restore the broken.

James – Faith/Works

Teacher: Rob Rogers
Dates: 1/9 - 4/10
Location: E-8
Cost $13

This study examines the core message of James: the relationship between faith and works. In our own ability, we cannot stand in the face of adversity. Without faith, we could never find the strength to trust God. We would never be able to see above the trials we meet and to keep our eyes focused on the King while counting our trials as joy. This is the essence of James. We do not work to be saved; we work because we are saved. Faith apart from works can never be sustained.

Dates: 1/9 – 5/29
Location: C-207 (Upstairs behind MPC)
Cost $10 (optional book)

Very few issues in Christianity are as divisive as the acceptance of the LGBT community in the church. This ENGAGE group has studied Messy Grace (and may choose to study it again) and continues to discuss how to connect to a key theme of Messy Grace which is that Jesus' command to "love your neighbor as yourself" doesn't have an exception clause for a gay "neighbor" - or for that matter, any other "neighbor" we might find it hard to relate to. Jesus was able to love all people, and yet still hold on to His beliefs, and so can you.
